Judge orders payment of punitive damages in Gulfview lawsuit

By DENA BISNETTE

Chancery Judge William L. Stewart has amended a court order to require three former Hancock County School Board members, two present board members and a former superintendent to pay punitive damages to the school district in connection with a conflict of interest lawsuit.

The original suit was brought by the state attorney general and the state auditor against former board members Woodrow Ladner, Louie Ladner and Oris Ladner and present board members Johnny Banks and Monvel Cuevas.

The suit originally sought to recover all of the $345,959 spent by the school board for emergency repairs after Gulfview Elementary School was struck by a tornado on May 19, 1980.

The state charged that the board and the superintendent had violated bid laws in contracts made for the repair work.

Stewart had issued a judgement on May 23 that ordered the board members to repay $27,784 of the total spent on repairs to the school district, but last week he amended the judgement to include punitive damages.

The $27,784 ordered repaid is an amount paid to one of the contractors, Gulf Electric Co., in violation of conflict of interest laws. Louie Ladner was an employee of Gulf Electric at the time the firm contracted for the Gulfview repair project.

He reportedly did some of the work on the building himself, which also violates state conflict of interest laws prohibiting boards from contracting with their members' businesses or employers.

Banks, Woodrow Ladner, Louie Ladner and Oris Ladner and their bonding companies have been ordered by the judge to pay $5,000 in punitive damages and Cuevas and his bonding company have been ordered to pay $4,000 in punitive damages.

In his amended judgement, Stewart also ordered that $5,000 in punitive damages be paid by former superintendent Billy D. Sills.

Sills had originally been named as a defendant along with the others, but he was excluded from the earlier opinion because his case had been separated from that of the board members.

The court had ruled to allow the separation after Sills pleaded guilty to accepting kickbacks from a contractor in 1982.

Stewart's original judgement had also stated that state bid laws cited in the suit in addition to the conflict of interest statutes did not apply in this case.

The bid laws were changed about a year before the suit was filed, allowing boards to enter into contracts without bidding if they first declare a project an emergency expenditure.

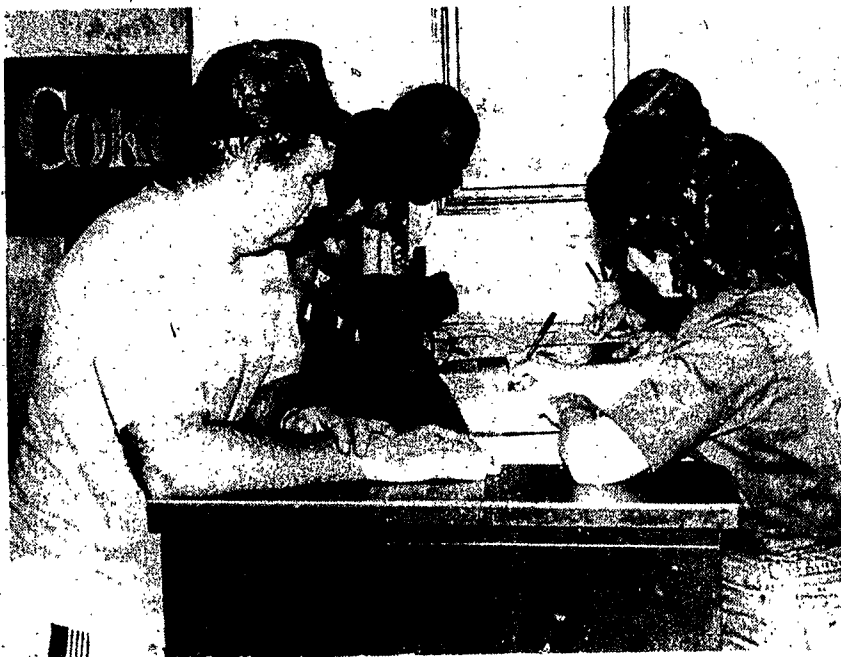

Local mayors included

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

Bay St. Louis, Waveland and Pass Christian mayors were named Thursday to an executive committee to oversee a beachfront improvement study in Hancock and Harrison counties.

The meeting at the University of Southern Mississippi Gulf Park campus was attended by several local officials and representatives of state and local agencies which have joined together to plan the bicoastal study.

This is the first major attempt to get everyone affected by the proposed pro-

REGISTERING TO VOTE—Saturday was the last day for voter registrations for the November General Election. Among those at the courthouse on Saturday were from right Frances Mitter, Hancock County deputy circuit clerk; and J.V. Ladner, Hancock County Election Commission chairman; Mr. and Mrs. James Paul Avery of Catahoula Community; and Lawrence Merrigan of Bay St. Louis. Hancock County Circuit Clerk John Rutherford reported there were 132 persons to register. Mrs. Kathryn Ann Pearce of Diamondhead was the last person to register before the 5 p.m. deadline Rutherford said. (Staff photo by Ellis Cuevas).

Bow hunting for deer begins at ammo plant

By DENA BISNETTE

Despite legal efforts to stop it, a scheduled archery hunt for deer started Saturday on land leased from NASA's National Space Technology Laboratories by the Mississippi Army Ammunition Plant.

A group fighting cruelty to animals had tried to stop the hunt with a request for a temporary restraining order, but Federal Judge Walter F. Nixon refused to rule on the request Wednesday.

U.S. Army Capt. Aaron Cobb, working at one of the checkpoints where hunters were allowed to enter the ammunition plant property, reported that 63 of the 65 hunters allowed per hunt showed up Saturday morning.

By the time the morning hunt had ended at 11 a.m., only two deer had been killed. A second hunt, also with 65 hunters expected, was scheduled for Saturday afternoon.

The legal efforts to stop the hunt were made in the form of a lawsuit filed in U.S. District Court by Fund for Animals, Inc., a New York-based organization, and fund member Cynthia Hatten of Long Beach.

The suit alleges that the deer on the property, which is part of an area NSTL reportedly set aside as a game preserve when its facilities were built about 20 years ago, are tame and should not be hunted.

Mrs. Hatten's attorney, Aaron Adams, said the "implied contract" to keep the area a game preserve was not addressed by Nixon Wednesday because the "implied contract" was with the county and the county was not a party to the suit.

A second claim made by the suit, this one alleging that hunting in the area endangers five threatened species including the bald eagle and the American alligator, was addressed.

According to Adams, Nixon's opinion on the request stated that the complainants could show no proof that the endangered species would be harmed by the presence of hunters.

Mrs. Hatten said late Friday that Fund for Animals, Inc., is still evaluating the possibility and expense of pursuing a request for an injunction to stop the hunts.

The hunts are scheduled for Saturday mornings and Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons during the normal archery hunting season.

"I'm very, very disappointed. I was really hoping that the judge would understand that there are endangered species living there as well as deer," Mrs. Hatten said.

She said that she considers bowhunting a more cruel way of killing animals than gun hunting and wishes to have the sport outlawed. She called archery hunting a "really sick way to get recreation."

Cobb said, however, said that gun hunting could not be allowed at NSTL for security reasons.

Hubbard represented Hancock County at the meeting.

The group scheduled a public meeting in the Bay St. Louis-Waveland area Nov. 20 and in Pass Christian Nov. 19. Three other public meetings will be conducted Nov. 14-16 in Harrison County.

The meetings are scheduled so the public can offer any suggestions or comments on the study which will eye the 37 miles of sand beaches in the two counties.

"We're planning this for close to 200,000 people so we must develop a plan the majority of the people agree on," Jeff Taylor of Gulf Regional Planning Commission.

"This will certainly be good for the tourist economy," Taylor said, "but it will also be for local enjoyment and use."

Officials hope the study can be implemented with funds already committed from the BMR, contributions from both counties and the six municipalities involved, resources from several state and federal agencies that have already indicated a willingness to participate and by Coastal Energy Impact Program funds requested.

Improvements will include replenishment of the beach, construction of public showers and rest rooms and other recreational facilities such as fishing piers.

Emphasis of the project will be on restoration and conservation of the beach, not commercialization, Long Beach Mayor Glen Mitchell stressed.

"This is easily the biggest project of this kind on the Mississippi Coast," Leard said, "and it is gaining momentum with each meeting."

Leard told officials at the meeting that with funds from two sources the BMR already has committed $100,000 to the project.

He also said the bureau has requested in its budget an additional $165,000 from the state legislature.

Courage said the study should include a maintenance plan. He added that grant applications should list what kind of maintenance program is planned for upkeep of beaches and facilities.

Wastewater board waits for grants

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

The Waveland Regional Wastewater Management District met Wednesday to approve the docket to pay bills.

Following the approval of the docket the meeting was concluded in less than a half hour, but board members say this is not usually the case.

Business for the board is in a holding pattern until we hear from the grant requests, Ethel Shott, director of the Treatment Plant, said.

Grants have been requested for a four-part plan to improve the wastewater treatment facilities, with the first segment estimated at nearly $400,000.

Ray Eaton, representing Lewis-Eaton Engineering firm, told the board that the applications and paperwork for the grant had been mailed in on time and everything appears to be in good shape.

The plan includes the upgrading of the Bay St. Louis lagoon, construction of a force main from the lagoon to Waveland, laboratory and office facilities expansion, tripling the size of the plant and getting a collection system for the county established.

Segment I of the plan will be the improvements at the lagoon and Bay St. Louis and if the grant is approved, the work will begin 1984, according to Schott.

Each of the other three segments will begin as the grant funds are received. With yearly requests for grants, the fourth segment is scheduled to be started in 1988.

Schott said the board hopes that enough money will be received to begin both Segment II and III in 1986. These segments include the construction of the force main to Waveland, the laboratory, office and treatment plant expansion.

The board briefly discussed the existing Sewer Use ordinances in Waveland and Bay St. Louis.

John McCarty with the Bureau of Pollution Control, recommended that the ordinances be amended to include specific penalties for the discharge of flammable and explosives substances into the system, and that these substances should be listed.

Currently the ordinances forbid the entrance into the system of harmful substances and other substances that would disrupt service in the system. The ordinances do state that penalties will be assessed for violators but the penalties are not stated.

No action was taken on McCarty's recommendation.

Building increase lowers unemployment

By DENA BISNETTE

An increase in the number of construction-related jobs in Hancock County caused the local unemployment rate to fall slightly during August.

According to statistics provided by the Mississippi Employment Security Commission, the August unemployment rate for Hancock County was 9.3 percent, 2 percent less than the 9.5 percent rate for July.

The 9.3 percent figure means that 890 people out of a civilian labor force of 9,600 were without jobs during August. The county's employed workers totalled 8,710.

Ann Ladner of the Bay St. Louis MESC office reported that an apparent increase in the number of construction-related jobs available was a major factor affecting the August unemployment rate.

"We had indications that construction must be up because we were able to place several people as carpenter's helpers and painters. We even had a welding job that we filled, and that was unusual," Mrs. Ladner said.

"Requests for those types of workers had been down for a long time."

The Bay St. Louis office placed a total of 97 people in jobs during August, she added.

A second factor affecting the August rate was a decrease in the county's civilian labor force, which declined by 60 workers. The decline was seasonal and was mostly caused by students dropping out of the work force to return to school.

Mrs. Ladner said the only significant decline in jobs available in a specific area during August was in retail and fast food businesses, but said she expects some hiring in these areas to continue until the Christmas season.

She said little change is expected in the local unemployment rate for September, but September statistics are not yet available.

Local unemployment during August remained below the state average, which was 11.1 percent with a high of 27.1 percent in Clarke County and a low of 5.6 percent in Rankin County.

Hancock County was one of 30 counties reporting decreased unemployment.

Both the county and the state, however, continued to have unemployment rates higher than the national average, which was 7.3 percent in August.

Free society, free press inseparable

The press in America occupies a place unique among the organized societies of the world, even in those democratic societies we regard as the most enlightened. The First Amendment, perhaps more so than any other rights our Constitution gives us, is the cornerstone of the many freedoms we as a people enjoy today.

Its language, which guarantees us the freedom of speech and the press, among other freedoms, is simple and unequivocal. During the course of our history there have been, and still are, those who attempt to find ways to tear these freedoms apart. Yet, our freedoms have endured and a free press is very much a part of a free United States of America today, because a strong, free press and a strong, free society are inseparable.

The right to know, to inform, and to be informed is a fundamental human right. The function of a free press is to serve the people's right to know. Any restrictions placed on a free press are restrictions on the people's rights and on their freedoms. Newspapers serve as a conduit of information, ideas, thoughts and opinions. Through their columns they transfer, without intentional bias, prejudice, distortion or favoritism, the news to their readers, and they attempt to analyze and to interpret what it all means.

In a highly complex, extremely complicated and changing society newspapers provide their readers with an enormous amount of information in a wide variety of interesting areas. Not only must they provide objective and factual news, they also must provide essential explanation and interpretation.

One of the newspapers' greatest, unwavering strengths is the element of friendship, the intimate one-on-one relationship that exists between the newspaper and its reader—a relationship that doesn't exist between any other medium and its audience.

The newspaper is the one medium that literally wraps its arm around the reader—and the community. Newspapers today are still the best source of all kinds of information that people need to carry on their daily living.

Freedom of the press means the citizen's right to be informed, to know what's happening and to be able to act on that knowledge.

True press freedom as we know it exists nowhere else, certainly not in totalitarian states, nor even in most democracies. It is essential to our free way of life. If we do not have access to true and accurate information upon which to make judgments and decisions we lose our ability to govern ourselves and pave the way for someone else to do our thinking for us.

The brief appearance of cool weather had everyone feeling fresh and wanting to do some of the work around their homes they have been putting off during hot weather.

It felt so good to have to wear a sweater for a couple days after the long hot summer.

It appears the cool snap has left and it will probably be back with us for keeps soon.

We look forward to fall and spring each year, as the changes are best time of the year.

There will be a Hancock County Blood Drawing on Wednesday at the Clement R. Bontemps American Legion Post's home on Green Meadow Road in Bay St. Louis.

The drawing will be held from 2 to 8 p.m. and we are hoping it will be successful.

As you know there is always a need to restore our blood supplies, as it is always needed at our hospitals.

Hancock General Hospital's blood supply comes from the Hancock County Blood Bank through the American Red Cross, as well as other hospitals along the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

John Rutherford, Hancock County Blood chairman, said he hopes to receive 100 units of blood at Wednesday's drawing, and this can be done with everyone able making a donation.

Also remember, the Hancock County Blood Bank is one of 15 agencies funded by the United Way of Hancock County.

On Monday night hunting safety classes for adults sponsored by the County Extension Service will be conducted.

The classes, designed especially for hunting in Western United States, will be at the Extension Services new office located behind Hancock General Hospital starting at 7 p.m.

Further information may be obtained by calling 467-5456.

We feel this is a very good service to be offered to residents.

Today is the final day of the Krewe of Real People Festival at the Bookter Street Park.

The sponsors call it a fun-filled event with something for everyone, booths, crafts, foods, dance contests, entertainment and much more.

So if you are looking for something to do today, you may want to drop by the festival and have a good time.

Jim Henrie's super large American Flags were flying very high at Gulfport's Rice Pavillion for President Reagan's visit last week.

The American Flags can be seen for miles when Henrie displays them at Bay-Waveland Auto Parts.

IMPROVING DRAINAGE—A natural drain through the Dr. A.K. Martinovich property on Seube and Washington Streets was being cleared this week by county and city officials. Checking on the progress are, from left, Bay Mayor Larry Bennett, District Four Board of Supervisor Sam Perniciaro, District Four employees Sid Hawkins, and Joe Cook Kellar.

The natural drain runs from Seube to Washington Street and is responsible for the drainage of a large area west of Seube, according to officials. Perniciaro said the project would take several days as small trees had to be removed from the ditch by the dozer in order to use a backhoe to dig the drainage ditch. (Staff photo by Ellis Cuevas).

Hancock Red Cross Blood Bank chairman appeals for donations at Wednesday drawing

Editor
The Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis, Ms

Dear Sir:
The American Red Cross Mobile Unit will be at the American Legion Home, Post No. 139, Bay St. Louis, on Wednesday, Oct. 10 from 2-8 p.m.

Our quota for this blood drawing is 100 units.

As usual, our present blood supply is low, because we failed to meet our quota at the last drawing.

We know you are aware of the importance to the life and health of our community to have blood available at all times, and that to do this we need your help.

We would like to request The Sea Coast Echo readers who are physically able and 17 years old or older to come in Wednesday afternoon and donate a unit of blood.

All blood collected by the American Red Cross is made available to the residents of this area.

Sincerely,
JOHN D. RUTHERFORD JR.
Chairman

Red Cross Blood Services manager reports local donations serve local needs

Editor
The Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis

Dear Friend:
Through the American Red Cross, volunteer blood donors provide blood and blood products for seven hospitals in Hancock, Harrison and Jackson Counties.

Red Cross blood is provided on the basis of patient need without any eligibility or replacement requirements. When blood is required by a Mississippi Coast resident in a hospital not supplied by Red Cross, the local Red Cross chapter should be contacted to enable us to arrange replacements if necessary.

A Jackson organization, not affiliated with the American Red Cross provides total supply to only one coastal hospital.

That organization has, from time to time, made emergency appeals for blood in the immediate area of the seven hospitals served by Red Cross, allegedly to meet the needs of specified patients.

The public has not been informed of the use to which blood thus obtained actually has been put.

In one recent instance, the emergency call by the Jackson organization was for a patient at Presbyterian University Hospital in Pittsburgh, Pa., announcing that 400 units were needed and that $15 per unit donated would be credited to the patient's account.

Actually, the blood bank in Pittsburgh, which supplies that hospital, eliminated the non-replacement fee and credit-for-donations system in 1976 and has confirmed to this office that no transfers of blood or credits are needed for that patient.

There was a similar emergency call recently for 100 units for a juvenile patient at a New Orleans hospital. That hospital has confirmed that the patient has thus far required only two units of blood.

We believe donors are entitled to the assurance that agencies to which they entrust their blood are acting responsibly in its management and distribution.

We encourage you to carefully consider the facts before donating blood to meet the alleged blood needs of patients hospitalized outside the Mississippi Coast.

Since blood is often in short supply, donations to organizations which do not supply your local hospital may jeopardize the quality of care in your community.

Questions about current provisions and policies of the Red Cross Blood Services should be referred to the local chapter. Through regular donations, Red Cross will continue to provide a safe and adequate supply for Mississippi Coast residents.

Sincerely,
MARTHA G. HAGGERTY

Captain Robert Butler

To the Editor

Dear Sir:
I was very much upset to learn recently that upon Chief William's retirement Captain Robert Butler was not named as acting chief.

It has been my experience that Captain Butler is one of the most able on our police force and certainly impresses me with his abilities to handle responsibility and crisis.

It is my understanding that an acting chief of police must be of the rank of lieutenant or above by police department policies.

I hope sincerely that the City of Bay St. Louis, as represented by our mayor, is not promoting on the basis of color.

State lists two fatalities for Labor Day

During the three-day Labor Day holiday weekend, 451 persons died in motor vehicle accidents, the National Safety Council reports.

During the same holiday period in 1983, 480 persons died in traffic accidents.

Two fatalities were recorded in the state of Mississippi during the holiday, according to United Press International. Six states reported no fatalities during the weekend, and three states reported one fatality.

"Mississippi and five other states recorded two fatalities for the 1984 Labor Day holiday weekend," James L. Roberts Jr., Mississippi's commissioner of public safety, said.

"Our goal for every holiday period is to have zero fatalities on Mississippi highways."

Roberts said he was pleased, however, that Mississippi was among the 14 states in the nation reporting two or fewer fatalities during the 1984 Labor Day observances.

The National Safety Council had predicted between 450 and 500 persons would die in traffic accidents nationwide during the period that began at 6 p.m. Friday, Aug. 31 and ended at midnight, Monday, Sept. 3.

Deer Street resident feels neglected

Editor
Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis

Dear Sir,
I'm writing in reference to the street on which I live, Deer Street.

It is so full of pot holes you drive down the street like you're drunk dodging them.

Also, we are supposed to have a turn around as its a dead end street. We do not have one.

We have not seen the mosquito cart in God knows when.

Our street was supposed to be black topped in April well it was too wet. Next it was supposed to be done July 1, 1984.

This was the date given to begin by Mr. Travirca.

It was in the Sea Coast Echo by Mr. Travirca.

I have tried to contact him at his office and at his home and did not succeed.

I belong to the Garden Isle Civic Association and brought the matter up. I was told by another member that they spoke to Mr. Travirca and his crew is very busy in Diamondhead and don't know if there will be enough money left to do the street.

If money was set aside for this job where has it gone?

Also when you have a continuous south or southeast wind it floods Iris Street the only way our street residents may get out.

Although we pay our taxes just like everyone else and pay higher insurance premiums due to living back here.

It seems to me we are the forgotten one's.

Wake up, Mr. Travirca. Diamondhead is a richer community but we are still taxpayers.

We expect just as much as anyone else.

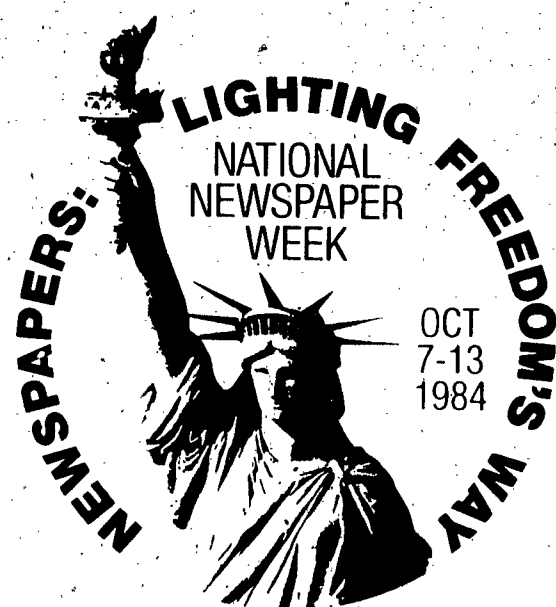

And we also do not like having to go inside at dusk before the mosquitos carry us away.

Give us some of your time or if you have too much territory to cover why not split it and let us have someone we can count on.

What happened to that fill you were going to send out to fill the big water hole your men made digging up that water pipe?

Well, I got tired of waiting since January and bought fill to keep from having another mosquito and snake pit.

Respectfully
Mrs. Shirley Schwebel

Bay High edges Stanislaus 13-7

By DENA BISNETTE

In a close, hard-hitting game Friday night, Bay St. Louis High School won a hard-fought 13-7 victory over cross-town rival St. Stanislaus.

"It was a tremendous effort by our boys, and I think they really showed a lot of enthusiasm, especially after being down by one touchdown at the half. They started to come on strong during the second half," said Cleveland Williams, head coach of the winning Bay High Tigers.

"Both teams showed good sportsmanship too," he added. "Some people expect a cross-town rivalry like this to be a big fight."

The fighting Friday was strictly for the football, which changed hands several times in a first half that was dominated by the St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws.

The Rock started the scoring for the night with a 10-yard touchdown run by Mark Logan, putting six points on the scoreboard with 6:45 to go in the first quarter.

Matt Spotorno followed up with the extra point to put the score at 7-0.

The rest of the first half was a defensive game, with St. Stanislaus getting the ball again late in the first quarter when Todd Thriffley intercepted a Tiger pass.

The Tigers stopped the Rock-A-Chaws but lost possession on a touchdown saving tackle by Mike Yarborough and Jimmy Thriffley at the one yardline.

At halftime, the Tigers left the field trailing 7 to zip.

"We had to make some minor adjustments in our defense after the first quarter because St. Stanislaus had a real good surge going against us," Williams said.

Williams said he also felt that the pressure of playing an old rival like the Rock-A-Chaws got to the Tigers during the first half.

"They may have been a little too psyched up for this game. We were sticking to our basic game plan but were still making some mistakes."

The second half, however, was a different story, with the Tiger defense holding back the Rocks and the offense tying the score late in the third quarter.

The Tigers' first touchdown came with 3:30 to go in the third quarter when quarterback Jeffrey Smith threw to Quentin Bell for a seven yard score. The extra point was added by Stace McRaney to knot the score at 7-7.

The Tigers pushed ahead in the fourth quarter when Richard Whavers scored on a 14-yard run. The try for the extra point was nullified by a penalty. The second attempt missed, leaving the Tigers in front 13-7 with 8:11 remaining.

Bay High's rugged defense shut down the Rocks the rest of the way to preserve their second win of the season.

Williams named Trace McRaney, Eddie Nelson, Richard Whavers and Greg Necaise as outstanding players for the game, but added that he felt the Tigers showed a great team effort.

Next week, Bay High meets Long Beach at home.

Bay Junior High posts win over Stanislaus

By DENA BISNETTE

Bay St. Louis Junior High School shut out St. Stanislaus Junior High 26-0 Thursday.

The Tigers started scoring early in the first quarter with a six-yard touchdown run by Jerry Island, according to Coach Gary Blaize.

Brian Leneaux added two points to the score by following up with a conversion.

Leneaux made the night's second touchdown on a 56-yard run, bringing the score to 14-0.

In the third quarter, Leneaux scored again on a six-yard run.

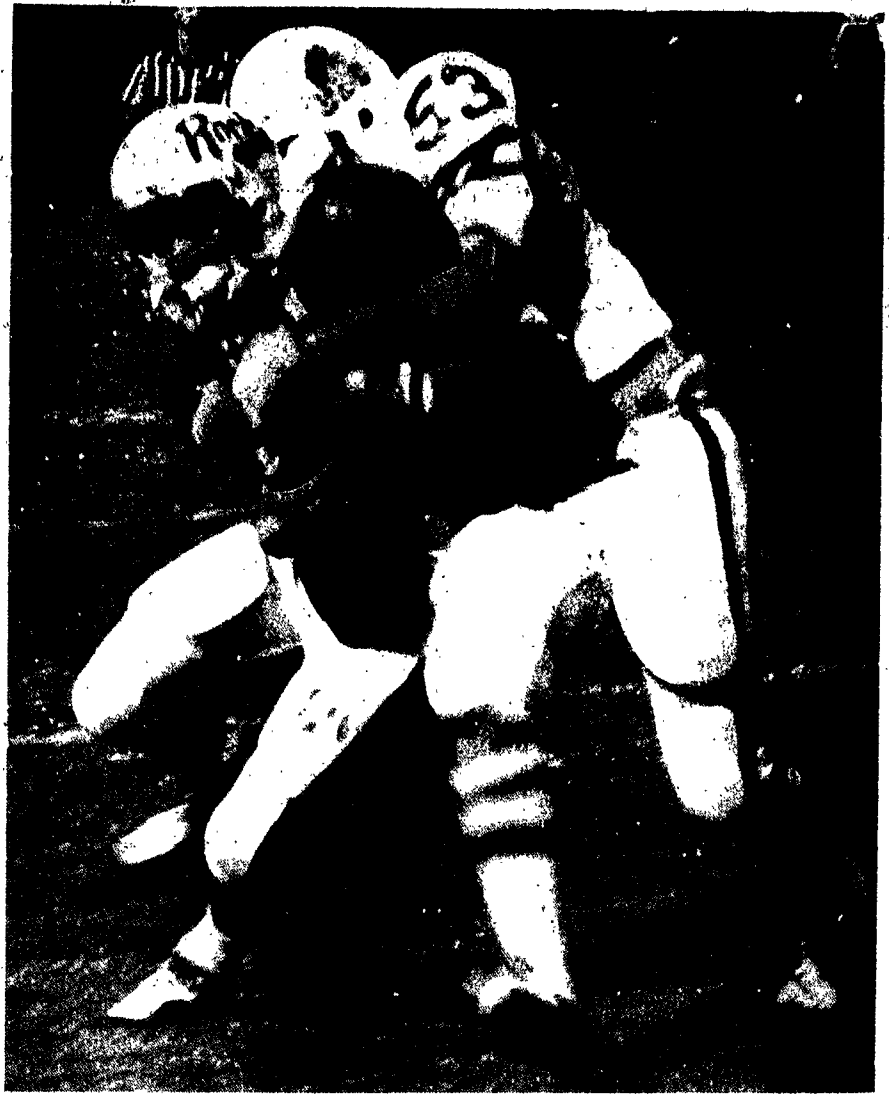

Leneaux finished the game as the Tigers' leading scorer with a 45-yard run for the final touchdown, leaving the score at 26-0.

"Our boys played a real good game," said Blaize. "The offensive line played well all night opening holes for the backs."

Blaize said his outstanding defensive players for the game included Island, Leneaux, Brian Fernandez, Daryl Booker, Darren Washington, Lance Bell and Dante Curry.

The win brings the Bay Jr. High season record to 4-0.

Next week, the junior high Tigers travel to Long Beach.

Tomcats outlast Pirates, 14-12

TOUCHDOWN?—Pirate quarterback Joey Rogers, 15, scores from three yards out as a Pass Christian second half rally cuts into a 14-0 halftime deficit. Unable to stop the clock, the Pirates lost to Stone County, 14-12 Friday night in the Pass.

The officials ruled this play a touchdown even though Roger's knees appear to be down before he crossed the goal. The Pirates' other score came on a 25 yard pass to Tony Howell. (Echo photo by Randy Ponder)

PASS AN RUN—Tightend Irvin Hall, 81, picks up five yards after catching a pass from Joey Rogers during first half action of the Stone County - Pass Christian high school football contest Friday night. A second half rally by the Pirates fell just short as the Tomcats hung on for a 14-12 victory, giving them sole possession of first place in the conference. Stone scored two first half touchdowns before the Pass retaliated with two in the last half. The Pirates had one chance to pull the game out, however a desperation pass with no time on the clock fell incomplete. Pass Christian, 3-2, will travel to East Central next week. Hancock Hawks take 28-7 victory over Hornets

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

When the Hancock North Central Hawks pulled ahead of East Central High School Friday night, one excited player said, "We get to sing on the way home tonight."

The Hawks have something to sing about.

Ending a four game losing streak, Hancock North Central shut down Hornet scoring in the first quarter, and took their first win of the season, 28-7.

"I'm just tickled to death to win," Coach Irvin Favre said, "It was way overdue."

Favre wasn't the only one tickled over the game. Players on the sidelines, fans, managers and statisticians all wore smiles for most of the fourth quarter.

But it wasn't all smiles in the game as the Hornets managed to get on the scoreboard first and hold the Hawk offense back until only a few minutes before halftime.

Hancock North Central kicked off to the Hornets and the Hawk defense came out with a strong effort, forcing East Central to punt after just three plays.

The Hawks took over on their own 25-yard line. Stanley Jourdan was pushed back one yard and then the Hawks lost the ball to East Central on a fumble.

On this possession the Hornets scored, less than five minutes into the game.

Hawk offense seemed to be having some trouble and had to punt on fourth downs in their next couple of possessions of the ball.

In the second quarter, Hawk offense was able to gain a little more yardage.

With a four yard gain from the Hawk 33, Charles Burton started a drive that netted the Hawks five first downs and a touchdown.

Frank Ladner added three yards on the second down followed by Burton pushing through for a first and 10 in Hornet territory. Next Burton ran deep for a touchdown that was called back on a clipping penalty.

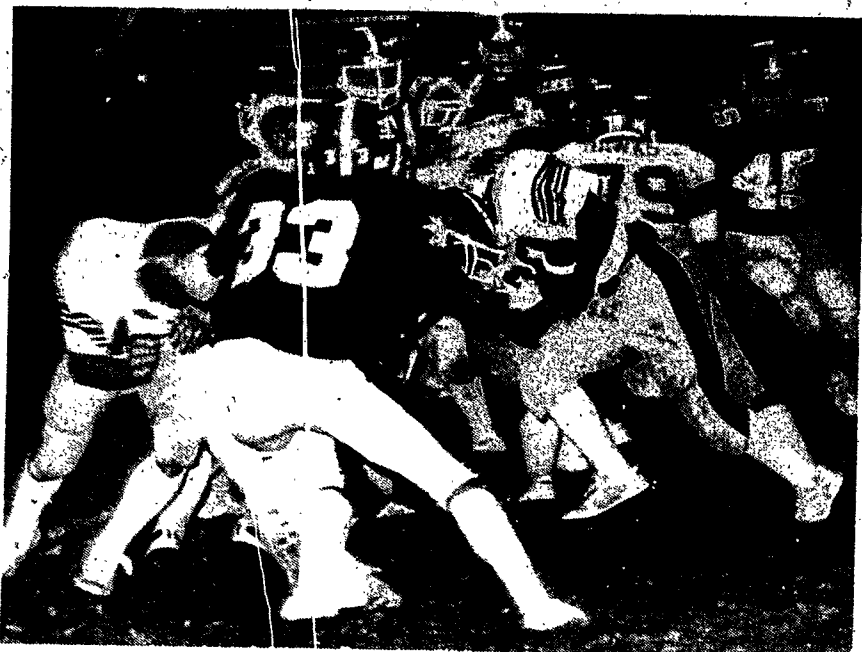

The returned TD didn't slow down the Hawks. Fullback Jourdan got two consecutive first downs and the ball ended up laying on the Hornet 22-yard line.

Burton and Jourdan each added more yards before Melton Lewis landed just short of the 10-yard line for another first down.

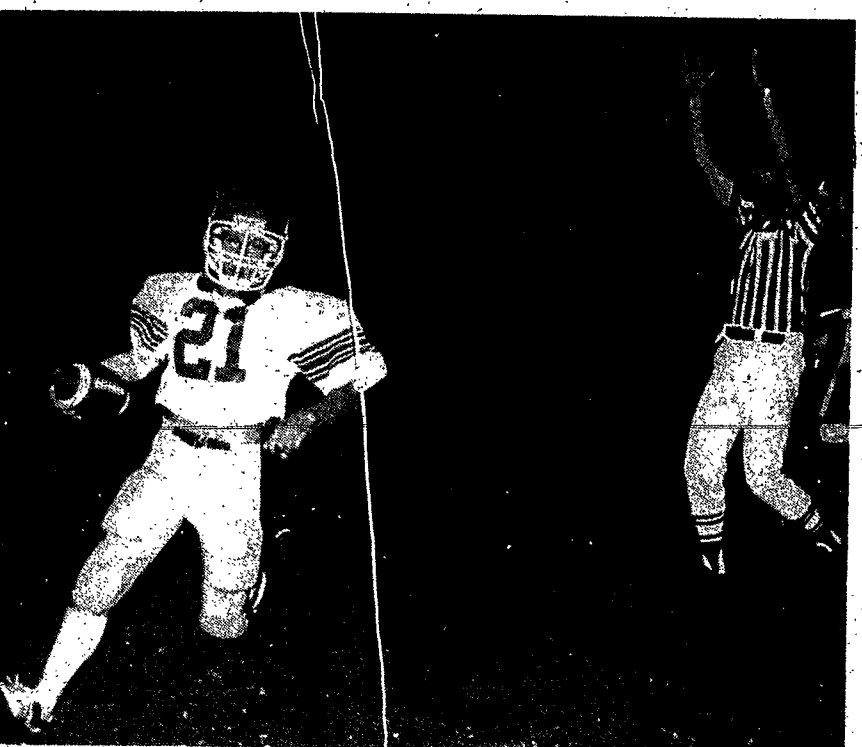

Following a play with offsetting penalties, Lewis with through the middle to score with 5:31 left before the half. The PAT was good and Hawks tied the score at 7-7.

The Hawks received the kickoff following the half and Jourdan gained four yards before a Hawk pass was intercepted.

The score remained 7-7 until with only two seconds left in the third quarter, Burton broke loose for a 71-yard touchdown run. The extra point by Drew Malley was good and the Hawks led, 14-7.

LADNER SCORES TOUCHDOWN—Hancock North Central tailback Frank Ladner scores against the East Central High School Friday night. This was the first of four touchdowns for the HNC Hawks who took a 28-7 win over the Hornets. (Staff photo by Brenda Heathcock)

HNC player Jacob Dupree picked off a Hornet pass and ran it back to the 35-yard line giving the Hawks back the ball in East Central territory.

Burton gained four and then Jourdan made the first down on the East Central 19-yard line. Jourdan rushed for eight yards and Lewis made the first down, eight yards short of the goal line.

The next three plays gained the Hawks more than seven yards but were stopped on the fourth down, just inches short of a score.

East Central took over inside their own one-yard line. The quarterback dropped back in the endzone and the Hornets fumbled the ball which Burton recovered to add another touchdown to the HNC score.

The final Hawk touchdown was a 52-yard run by Tony Guidry with only 1:35 left in the game. The PAT was good and the Hawks took a 28-7 win.

Favre said the team had prepared themselves well and gave a good effort that showed all the way.

He was especially proud of the running game of the Hawks. The total offense of the Hawks was 338 yards.

Next week the Hawks will begin district play when they host St. Martin. Kickoff will be at 7:30 p.m.

STRONG DEFENSIVE PLAY—Jacob Dupree, No. 45, and an unidentified North Hancock Central Hawk player stop East Central High School ball carrier during Friday's game. With many other outstanding defensive plays like this one, the Hawks held the Hornets to a single touchdown, to take a 28-7 win over their opponents for their first victory of the regular season. (Staff photo by Brenda Heathcock)

Ninth grade Hawks take 4th victory

The Hancock North Central ninth grade football team won its fourth game in overtime Thursday, 12-9 over East Central.

With a 4-1 regular season and conference record, HNC is tied for second place in the Deep South Conference with the Bay High School ninth grade team. Conference leader is Stone County with a 5-0 record.

During the East Central game, both teams remained scoreless for the first half.

In the third quarter, the Hancock ninth graders started the scoring with a 75-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Jeff Moran to wingback Donald Vince. The extra point attempt failed and Hancock took a 6-0 lead.

East Central tied the score with a five-yard run by quarterback Steve Wells. Again the PAT failed.

In overtime East Central took the ball first and on the fourth down added three points to their score with a 27-yard field goal.

On Hancock's possession of the ball,

Vince scored again. He ran in from four yards out on the third down to give the Hawks the win.

Final score of the game was, 12-9.

"The team played a pretty good defensive game for a change," Coach Joe Shaw said. "but we had several mistakes by the offensive squad who turned the ball over five times, with four fumbles and one interception."

Next week, the team will play St. Martin in a non-conference game. The Thursday game will begin at 7 p.m.

LET'S TALK FACTS

The Hancock County jail is one of the worst in the state, according to the Mississippi State Building Commission. Here are some facts that tell you why.

The present jail was built in 1937 to house only 15 inmates. Now, nearly 50 years later, it houses as many as 50.

Instead of seeing improvements over the years, we have witnessed a deplorable deterioration of living conditions:

- The jail contains only six cells, or a total of 972 square feet of cell space. This gives 50 inmates a living space equal to a 4 x 5 hallway closet.
- Each cell contains from two to 12 bunk beds. That's not enough so there are sleeping mats on the floor. Even so, inmates often sleep in shifts.
- There are only four single-stall showers.
- The inmates share five toilets, one in each cell and not enclosed.
- Meals are brought to the cells because there is no mess hall.

The need is urgent.

Vote ☒ for the jail bond issue on Nov. 6.

tee, two other bodies are listed as participants in the study—a technical working group and an advisory committee.

The technical working group includes the BMR, the Southern Mississippi Planning and Development District, Gulf Regional Planning Commission, municipal and county planning agencies, county engineers, Civil Defense organizations, port and harbor development representatives, Gulf Coast Research Laboratory, Sea Grant Advisory Service, Department of Natural Resources, State Highway Department and other relevant state, federal and local agencies.

Eighteen representatives of chambers of commerce, planning commissions, port commissions, development groups and tourism industry officials will be included on the advisory committee.

Officials stressed that both the technical working group and the advisory committee are loosely structured and additional groups may be added as deemed necessary by the executive committee.

The executive committee will meet monthly to provide overall direction to the study and approve contractors. They will also adopt the plan as a public policy and develop a joint implementation plan.

Their next meeting will be Thursday, Nov. 8 at 9 a.m. on USM's Gulf Park campus in Long Beach.

plant site Saturday, said he believes the deer have overpopulated the area.

It was the need to correct the problem, indicated in a study by Mississippi State University last year, that the army cited as its reason for allowing the hunts.

Thomason said one of the deer killed was a buck about two years old. The animal was underweight, with a live weight of about 107 pounds, and carried a very small amount of body fat.

The other deer was a mature doe of undetermined age and the biologist said she had apparently raised no fawn this year, showing that the area may have too many deer to support.

Thomason added that a survey taken of all hunters leaving the area indicated that at least 75 percent of them sighted deer on the ammunition plant property.

"The important thing we've found out today is that even if these deer are in the peak of health, we still have a huntable population here that can be properly managed to provide recreation and food," he said.

He said he received no indications from hunters that the deer are tame, but said the animals are apparently less shy of humans than deer from a hunted area and appear unusually accustomed to seeing and hearing vehicles.

Cobb said there were protests at NSTL after the army announced its intention to open the ammunition plant area to hunters but said no protesters appeared when the hunt began Saturday.

Cure—Garcia

St. Clare Catholic Church in Waveland was the setting for the August 18 marriage of Elizabeth Ann Garcia and Joseph Richard Cure. The Rev. William Joseph Voller officiated at the double ring afternoon ceremony.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. David L. Garcia of Waveland. The groom is a son of Joseph E. and Sylvia Bertel Cure of Bay St. Louis.

Arrangements of white gladioli and peach carnations adorned the altar and palms decorated the sanctuary.

Nuptial music was presented by Beth Watkins, organist, and Mrs. Alan Noonan, soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal white gown featuring a high sheer neckline with fitted bodice heavily embroidered with schiffli lace. Long bishop sleeves were accented with identical lace. The natural waistline fell into a circular skirt of silk taffeta which extended to a semi-cathedral train designed with English netting embroidery. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a contour wreath of flowers.

She carried a cascade of white silk roses, stephanotis, blossom spray, peach sweetheart roses, seed pearls, jubilee gyp, plumosa and picot ribbon.

Theresa Garcia of Waveland, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Cindy Rutherford of Waveland, sister of the groom, was matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mary Garcia and Patricia Garcia of Waveland, sisters of the bride, and Susie Cure of Bay St. Louis, sister of the groom.

Flower girl was Claudette Garcia of Pearlinton, cousin of the bride.

Attendants were attired in formal gowns in pastel rainbow colors, each with fitted bodice of sata peau featuring portrait neckline of triple rows of embroidered English net ruffles accented with fabric rose. They wore wreaths of jubilee gyp and blossom spray in complementary colors and carried silk cascades of white roses, blossom spray, peach carnations, plumosa and jubilee gyp.

Michael Cure of Bay St. Louis, brother of the groom, was best man.

Groomsmen were Jeff Rutherford of Waveland, brother-in-law of the groom; Colin Klein of Metairie, La., and Alvin Bernard of Long Beach, cousins of the bride; and Wayne Bernond of Bay St. Louis.

Ushers were Rod Villere of New Orleans, uncle of the bride, and Alvin Ladner Jr. of Bay St. Louis.

Ring bearer was Scott Slade of Poplarville.

A reception followed the ceremony at St. Clare parish hall.

Assisting were Mrs. Alvin Bernard of Long Beach, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Claude Garcia of Pearlinton, aunt of the bride, who designed the wedding cake.

The couple is at home in Waveland, following a wedding trip to the Great Smoky Mountains in Tennessee.

Pre-Nuptial Parties

The bride's fellow employees at National Space Technology Laboratories honored her with a luncheon-shower at Todd's Steak House in Waveland.

A miscellaneous shower was hosted by the bridesmaids in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Garcia, grandparents of the bride.

Following the wedding rehearsal, a dinner for the wedding party was held at The Round Table Restaurant in Waveland.

Hoda—Waltman

Willa Fay Waltman and Wayne Joseph Hoda exchanged wedding vows September 15 in an afternoon ceremony in Annunciation Catholic Church, Kiln, with the Rev. Austin Walsh officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jean Lucy Waltman of Pass Christian and the late Earl Waltman. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Vincent Hoda Sr. of Kiln.

Four arrangements of pastel colored chrysanthemums adorned the altar. Pastel ribbons in lavender, yellow, peach, blue, green and pink marked the pews.

Musical selections were performed by Lola Luizza of Diamondhead.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, Earl Gene Waltman, the bride wore a formal gown of white sheer chiffon. The bodice of English netting featured a high neckline and sheer yoke trimmed in stripes of embroidered Belgian lace. A princess waistline was embellished with venise lace and seed pearls, while the full skirt extended to a cathedral train edged in silk venise lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion was secured by a Juliet caplet of lace and seed pearls.

She carried a dozen white roses, baby's breath, heart-shaped pearls and satin streamers in a tear drop shape.

Olivia P. Waltman of Pass Christian, sister of the bride, was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Joye Hoda of Long Beach and Jeanne Hoda of Kiln, sisters-in-law of the groom; Pam Bernond of Bay St. Louis, cousin of the groom; and Susan Cuevas of Pass Christian.

Tobi M. Watts of Pass Christian, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

The attendants wore formal chiffon gowns in pastel rainbow colors, each fashioned with cowl neckline and Grecian sleeves. They carried single stemmed roses with baby's breath and streamers to complement their gowns and wore wreaths of matching flowers with baby's breath.

Gene A. Hoda of Long Beach served his brother as best man.

Groomsmen were Martin L. Hoda and Quentin M. Hoda of Kiln, brothers of the groom; Ricky E. Waltman of Bay St. Louis and Stuart L. Waltman of Pass Christian, brothers of the bride.

Ushers were Fabian E. Buquoi Jr. of Bay St. Louis and Michael L. Hoda of Long Beach, cousin of the groom.

Brian A. Hoda of Pass Christian, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

Mrs. Waltman chose for her daughter's wedding a chiffon gown of starlite blue featuring a high neckline, long fitted sleeves and full gathered skirt. Mrs. Hoda wore a plum qiana gown with full skirt and chiffon overblouse with lace Victorian neckline and Grecian sleeves.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall in Kiln.

Candle arrangements of pink and white roses decorated the food table. The guest register table held wedding scrolls, rice bags and matches in wicker baskets and was overlaid with a lace cloth.

For traveling to Fort Walton Beach, Fla., the bride chose a lavender suit with white blouse and white rosebud corsage.

The couple will reside in Kiln.

Pre-nuptial Parties

Annunciation parish center was the setting for a shower hosted by Joye Hoda and Jeanne Hoda, sisters-in-law of the groom.

A bridal shower hosted by Olivia Waltman, Susan Cuevas and Barbara Garcia was held at Cypress House at the National Space Technology Laboratories, where the bride is employed.

An after rehearsal dinner was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fabian Buquoi Jr. for members of the wedding party and immediate family. Hosts with the Buquois were Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Hoda, parents of the groom.

Sterling—Fouasnon

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Sterling of Bay St. Louis announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Melanie Lynn Sterling, to Alain David Fouasnon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Fouasnon of Bay St. Louis.

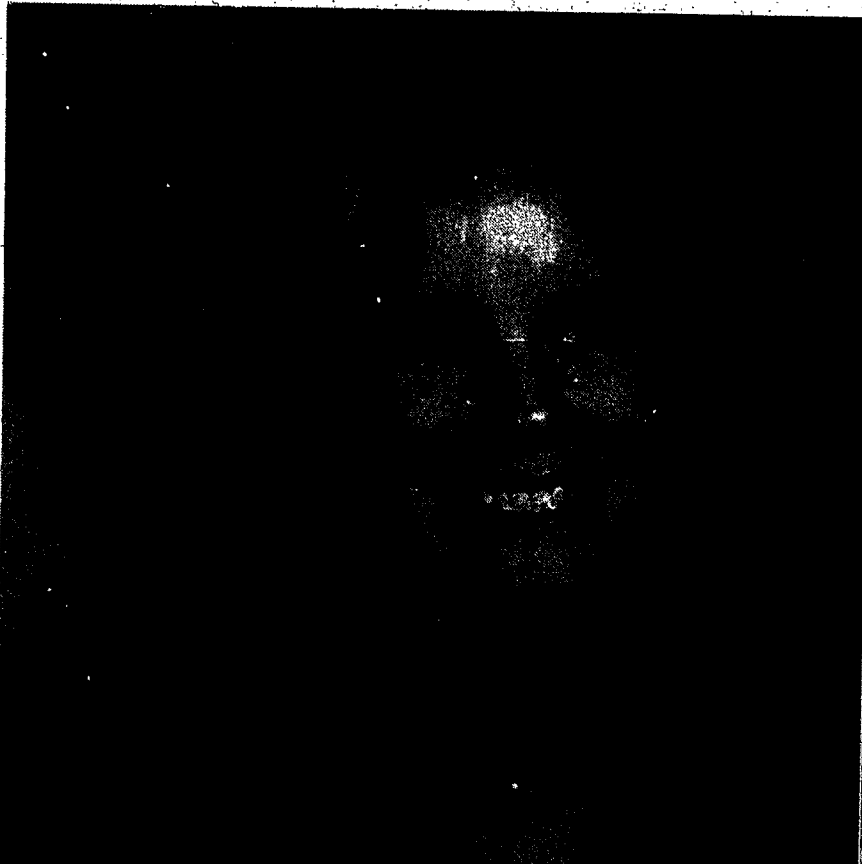

The bride-elect is a graduate of Cuyabogo Valley Christian Academy in Stow, Ohio. She received the Bible, English and History awards and graduated with honors. She attended Jefferson Davis Junior College and is employed with Wilcox Pharmacy in Waveland.

Miss Sterling is the granddaughter of Mrs. A.D. Biehl Sr. of Bay St. Louis, and the late Mr. Biehl and Mrs. Addie Sterling of Morgantown, W. Va. and the late Mr. Sterling.

The prospective groom is a graduate of Bay Senior High School. He was in the United States Army and is presently employed with a New Orleans construction company. He is the grandson of Mrs. Emma Anderson of New Strawn, Kan. and the late Ralph Douglas and the late Mr. and Mrs. Auguste Fouasnon.

The couple will exchange vows in a 1:30 p.m. ceremony October 27 in the Word of Faith Fellowship Church on Henderson Avenue. A reception will follow in Virginia Hall, Christ Episcopal.

MELANIE LYNN STERLING

Barrett—Bosley

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Barrett of Bay St. Louis announce the engagement of their daughter, Julie Lynne Barrett, to David McKay Bosley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Bosley Jr. of Waveland.

The bride-elect's maternal grandparents are Mr. B.D. "Big" Johnson of Bay St. Louis and the late Mrs. Rose M. Johnson. Paternal grandparents are the late Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Barrett of Kirkwood, Mo.

Miss Barrett is a 1984 honor graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi and a 1980 graduate of Bay Senior High School. She is employed by Jitney

Jungle Stores of America in Jackson, Miss.

The prospective bridegroom's maternal grandparents are the late Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Grubbs of Keyser, W. Va. Paternal grandparents are the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Bosley Sr. of New Creek, W. Va.

He is a 1979 graduate of Bay Senior High School and is employed by Southern Shipbuilding Company in Biloxi, La.

The couple will celebrate their wedding day Oct. 27 at 1 p.m. at the Christ Episcopal Church in Waveland.

Mary Elizabeth Parker became the bride of Jeffery Charles Dunn September 1 in an evening ceremony in First Assembly of God Church in Waveland. The Rev. Charles Clark officiated at the double ring candlelight nuptials.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Parker Sr. of Bay St. Louis. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George E. Dunn Jr. of Mobile, Ala.

Two brass candelabra and a brass bridal arch were decorated with mauve candles and ribbons, and mauve ribbons marked the pews. Two baskets of mauve carnations, pink sweetheart roses, baby's breath and greenery adorned the sanctuary.

Miss Kelly Cremer was candlelighter.

Music was provided by pianist Sylvia Clark and vocalists Les Parker, brother of the bride, and Cheryl Crosby, all of Bay St. Louis.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown by Eve of Milady featuring fitted bodice with off-the-shoulder styling with lace embellished fitted sleeves ending in lace points. Shears of ruffles edged the five-foot train. Her bridal hat was adorned with lace and nylon netting. She carried a cascade of silk roses, blossoms and buds with satin ribbon streamers.

Monica Parker of Bay St. Louis, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Susan Buelot of Metairie, La., Dimple Saucier of Delisle and Colleen Doescher of Bay St. Louis, all cousins of the bride; Marguerite Beauguez, April Crosby and Lori Clark, all of Bay St. Louis.

Flower girls were Faith Floyd of Waveland and Judith Ann Pino of Kiln.

The attendants were attired in formal gowns of ash rose, each with fitted bodice and off-the-shoulder layers of swirling ruffles and softly flowing skirt with matching pumps. They wore wreaths of lavender, burgundy and white flowers and carried cascades of tea roses and lavender, burgundy and white blossoms with ash rose ribbon streamers.

Stacy Dunn of Mobile, Ala. served his brother as best man.

Groomsmen were Paul Parker of Bay St. Louis, brother of the bride; Danny Guin of Long Beach; Randy Cornell of Picayune; Mike Turnmire of Mobile; and Jason Kirkland of Picayune, cousin of the bride.

Dylan Brooks of Mobile, nephew of the groom, was ring bearer.

Mrs. Parker chose for her daughter's wedding a lavender crepe pleated gown with long sleeves. She wore wisps of lavender flowers in her hair. Mrs. Dunn was attired in a royal blue taffeta gown with puffed sleeves.

A reception followed the ceremony at Jourdan River Shores Club House.

Among those assisting were Rev. Venita Copeland, who baked the four-tiered wedding cake; Linda Ducote, Mary Biehl, Ona Yarbrough, Caro Crosby, Pansy Thurman, Beth Peterson and Anne Saucier.

Misses Lynette Clark and Tammy Cremer attended the guest register.

On return from a wedding trip to Fort Walton Beach, Fla., the couple resides in Long Beach.

Pre-Nuptial Parties

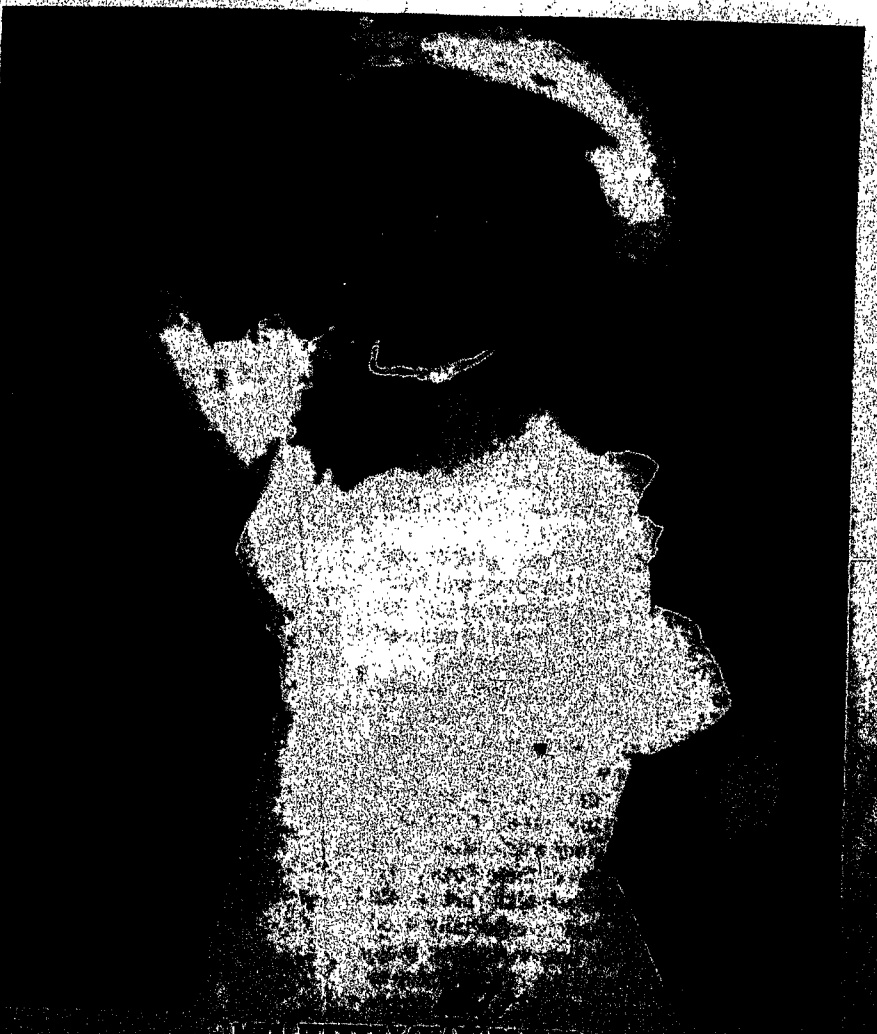

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Parker hosted an announcement party in July.

A miscellaneous shower was given by ladies of the First Assembly of God Church in Waveland.

A bridal shower was hosted by Mrs. George Dunn in Mobile, Ala.

A kitchen and bath shower was given by bridesmaids and friends.

A seafood buffet dinner was held in the Waveland Resort Inn hosted by Mr. and Mrs. George Dunn following the rehearsal.

Local Sweet Adelines seek official charter

The Mississippi Coast Chapter Prospective Sweet Adelines, Inc., has been authorized to "sing out" while their official chartering is in progress. The chorus achieved this goal under the direction of Dorothy Weirtz and the leadership of president Fran Wilson.

The chorus was first organized in January, 1982 in Bay St. Louis and moved its base of operations to Gulfport in October, 1983. Stringent standards are imposed by the international organization to insure the quality of groups representing the name all over the world.

Sweet Adelines choruses sing unaccompanied four-part barbershop harmony and strive to proliferate this style of singing in their communities.

The Mississippi Coast Chapter meets each Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m. at Westminster Presbyterian Church in Gulfport.

Out of necessity comes many a delicious tidbit or other food—such as the scribbled recipe I came across the other day while rummaging amongst old papers of years ago in a closet.

Can't remember where I go it, and haven't used it for a long time, though smudges and smears attest to the fact that I must have used it often in earlier years, and you may be sure that I'm enjoying it once more, now that I've found it again.

It's one of those "make do with what you have" recipes from the days of the Great Depression of the 30s, when even fresh eggs and milk were at times luxuries, and such on-hand ingredients such as molasses and crumbs of bread were often used. So, here's:

Molasses Bread Crumb Cake
3 Tbsp. bacon fat (you may use butter or margarine)

¾ cup boiling water
1 cup molasses
1 tsp. baking soda
¾ cup dried bread crumbs
½ cup raisins
1 cup flour (preferably whole wheat)
2 tsp. powdered ginger
Dash of salt

First, stir the baking soda into the molasses and set aside. Put the fat or butter in a bowl and pour the boiling water over to soften it. Next, pour in the molasses, and add the crumbs and raisins.

Finally, add the flour, ginger and salt. Mix it all well together, and bake in a lightly greased loaf pan at 325° for about 40 minutes, or for just 30 minutes if you're using a layer cake pan.)

The cake is done when it responds to the old "clean knife trick"—when a knife comes away clean after you stick it into the cake while it's baking.

This heavy, dark, moist cake is sweet, but not too sweet, more of a bread-cake, delicious with coffee, much as our coffee cakes of these days.

It's delicious served plain, hot or cold as you prefer, and is especially good served hot, with butter melting atop. It's even good with a generous dollop or so of whipped cream or whipped topping on each slice.

Former Waveland resident returns to establish evangelism ministry

An evangelistic training center is being established in Hancock County by former resident Denis Lynch.

Denis Lynch Ministries was established in Indianapolis, Ind. about five years ago.

"My work there is done," Lynch said, "and I came back to Hancock County about three weeks ago to begin new work here."

Lynch said the purpose of his mission is to work with churches and help pastors by field-training their workers in different areas of ministry, including street ministries, prison ministries, nursing home ministries and youth ministries.

Lynch has leased a building and grounds on Route 2, Box 866A, off the US-90 service road west of Asher's Grocery.

The Solid Ground Evangelistic Training Center will emphasize Christian worker fellowship, Lynch said.

Classes will be offered at 7 p.m. Monday and Saturday evenings, and a women's Bible study will be offered at 7 p.m. Tuesdays.

The classes are interdenominational, he said, and anyone who is interested will be welcomed.

Special outdoor contemporary Christian concerts with special guest bands are slated at the training center on Oct. 6 and Oct. 27, and a street meeting is planned for Oct. 15 in Pearllington.

Lynch said he grew up in Waveland and worked for The Sea Coast Echo, bundling newspapers when he was a youth.

He attended Indiana Christian University, he said, but learned street evangelism techniques primarily from working with other ministers.

Musical priests to perform at Festival of Worship II

The Dameans, a musical group of priests and laymen, will bring its musical mission to Biloxi Oct. 26-27 for the Diocese of Biloxi's Festival of Worship II.

Sponsored by the diocesan Office of Liturgy, the two-day workshop set at the Coast Coliseum Convention Center will feature programs of development and learning for laymen and religious involved in various aspects of liturgy.

The four musician liturgists met in 1987 at Notre Dame Seminary in New Orleans, where they were students for the Roman Catholic priesthood.

Drawn together to write music for Sunday liturgies, they soon began receiving invitations to play Masses in churches all over the New Orleans area.

Their musical efforts resulted in the formation of the group that would later be called The Dameans (short for Notre Dameans). A fifth original member, Father Dave Baker, is now in parish ministry in Beloit, Wis., while the others continue to serve in parishes throughout the dioceses of New Orleans and Baton Rouge.

The Dameans, made up of Father Gary Ault, Father Mike Balhoff, Father Buddy Caesar, Darryl Ducote and arranger, Gary Daigle, have several record albums to their credit.

In the workshop presentations, The Dameans show how music fosters congregational unity in response to God in worship and enables people to become aware of the presence of God in their lives.

Open to the public, the Festival of Worship II will be held 8-10 p.m., Friday, Oct. 26 and 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 27. Pre-registration fee, due by Oct. 6, is $5 for one day, $8 for both days. After Oct. 6, the fee will be $8 one day, $15 for both, according to Father Ivan Siekmann, director of the Office of Liturgy.

Registration fees, which include lunch, may be mailed to Office of Liturgy, P.O. Box 1189, Biloxi, MS 39533.

Bay attorney addresses Coast legal secretaries

The September meeting of the Harrison-Hancock Counties Legal Secretaries Association was held at the Western Sizzlin' Steakhouse, Gulfport.

President Billie Ruddick opened the meeting by greeting the following guests: Lisa Cooper and Paige Henegan, employed by Dukes, Dukes & Keating; Carol Kelly, employed by Attorney Wood Pringle; Dot Ladner, employed by Smith, Smith, Tate and Cruthirds.

The guest speaker for the evening was Honorable Walter J. Gex III of the law firm of Gex, Gex & Phillips, Bay St. Louis. Mr. Gex gave a very interesting and informative talk on 'the role of a legal secretary in a small town firm.'

Barbara Korner read the Code of Ethics, and Gini Meyers gave instructions on voting. A legal education quiz was presented by Patsy Bishop.

Carolyn Varnado, chairman of the NALS Basic Course, reported that approximately 45 people had registered for the course. National Association of Legal Secretaries delegate, Ilyne Stewart, presented her report on their annual meeting. Elizabeth Brewer announced that plans were being made for the Day-in-Court, which is an annual day set aside in October for this observance.

The professional Legal Secretaries examination will be held Oct. 27 and 28.

The National Association of Legal Secretaries fall board meeting will be held on Oct. 20-21 in Albuquerque, N.M.

The next meeting of the chapter will be at 6:30 p.m. at the Western Sizzlin' Steakhouse, Gulfport, on Oct. 11.

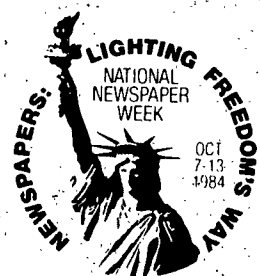

Macedonia Baptist to mark church's 21st anniversary

Macedonia Baptist Church on Morris Street in Waveland will celebrate its 21st anniversary during the coming weekend.

Rev. E.L. Hartwell, pastor of Forrest Heights Baptist Church, Gulfport will speak at 7:30 p.m. services Friday.

Special Memorial service will be held in memory of past members and friends at 10:45 a.m. Sunday, Oct. 14. An anniversary sermon by Rev. H.L.

Davis, pastor of New Era Baptist Church in Gautier will conclude the celebration at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, according to Rev. Lee Edward Morris, Macedonia pastor.

DAN WHITE INCIDENT

"The People vs. Dan White," a docu-drama about the shooting deaths of San Francisco Mayor George Moscone and city supervisor Harvey Milk, will be telecast at 9 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 17 on Mississippi ETV.

The television production is based on the stage play, "The Dan White Incident" by Steve Dobbins.

Viewers will see and hear White's confession, a psychiatrist's testimony that White had been driven momentarily insane by a combination of stress and junk food (the infamous Twinkie defense) and a restrained prosecution attempting to let the facts speak for themselves.

Interviews with a broad range of personalities who were directly involved with Dan White and his crime are intertwined with the dramatic reenactments of the events before, during and after the assassinations.

Local nurses attend national convention

Mary Ellen Ladner and Patricia Depreo are in Portland, Oregon, to attend the 28th annual convention of the American Association of Medical Assistants (AAMA).

More than 1,000 medical assistants, medical assisting educators and students, and other allied health and medical specialists are expected to attend the annual meeting Sept. 24-28.

A full complement of educational programming, including topics such as space medicine, herpes, marketing, birth defects, computer literacy, organ transplantation, AIDS, and malignant hyperthermia, will be offered. Also slated are sessions on DRGs, time and personnel management, IPAs and PPOs, the ethics of medical intervention in death, growing up and growing older, and helping single parents to cope. The overall theme of the convention is "New Populations."

The AAMA is a professional organization composed of receptionists, clinical assistants, secretaries, technicians, office managers and other allied health specialists who work in physicians' offices and other medical facilities. These versatile professionals are known as medical assistants, and 14,000 of them are members of AAMA in 46 societies and 500 local chapters nationwide.

Supermarket UPC use continues to increase

By Ann Rushing
Marketing Specialist
Cooperative Extension

From Pac Man to grocery store checkouts and all the highly sophisticated technology between, the computer has become a definite part of the consumer world.

One of the many marvels of computer technology, the Universal Product Code (UPC) scanning system, has found its way into a fourth of the nation's supermarkets.

Computerized grocery checkouts are here—hailed by some, criticized by others and certainly a source of amazement to the shopper who comes on them unaware, especially the cash register that "talks."

Whether or not computer checkouts prove to be the wave of the future in American supermarkets as some observers contend, the new "front ends" are a phenomenon that warrants a closer look.

Use of the UPC scanning system has grown rapidly since its introduction in 1974.

Now more than 5,000 supermarkets have the system, according to the Food Marketing Institute.

Indications from the food industry point to a continued increase in the use of scanner systems in which the in-store computer links a laser scanner with an electronic cash register.

The UPC bar code found on more than 90 percent of supermarket items, from magazines to hardware to food, is the key to the scanning systems.

The numbers on the bar code identify the product and manufacturer. The first five digits designate the manufacturer; the next five designate the specific product.

The retailer also may make UPC labels for products not coded by the manufacturer.

The code on each item is passed over a glass-covered slot in the check-out counter, where a laser scanner reads the code and transmits information to the instore computer. The price previously entered into the computer for each item then flashes on the visual display unit of the electronic cash register and is simultaneously printed on the receipt tape.

Coding supermarket products for price scanners is just the beginning for such technology.

In the future, not only will food manufacturers mark grocery items with the UPC code but manufacturers of general merchandise are likely to mark items with the OCR (Optical Character Recognition).

Scanning is designed to benefit the consumer by making shopping quicker, easier and more pleasant.

Potential benefits include speedier checkouts and more detailed receipts that list the item price, its brand name and size.

Accurate receipts will more likely result from the use of scanners since there's less chance of human error because of reduced manual input.

Reduced prices result when the retailer passes on cost savings to the consumer.

The retailer benefits by increased labor productivity, reduced overall labor costs, more accurate inventory control, better tracking of customer and product flow and eliminating cashier errors.

Scanning enables the retailer to get more timely and accurate management information on which to base decisions related to product mix and pricing.

Reactions to scanner systems have been mixed. Retailers, for the most part, welcomed them as a way to reduce cost and provide faster checkout for consumers.

Some consumers feared scanners might end individual pricing of products, making point-of-purchase shopping comparison more difficult.

Despite initial concern, the growth in scanner use indicates they'll continue to be a vital part of retail technology.

MYSTERY SPECIAL

Horace Rumpole returns to his chambers at the Old Bailey at 8 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 11 on Mississippi ETV when a two-hour "Mystery" special, "Rumpole's Return," is telecast.

"Mystery" will follow the two-hour movie with six new one-hour episodes of Rumpole of the Bailey at 8 p.m., Sundays beginning Oct. 14.

Unable to cope with the enforced leisure of retirement in Miami Beach, where much of "Rumpole's Return" was filmed, the cigar-smoking, rumpled barrister soon succumbs to a persistent longing for another round of legal battles in the law courts.

Renouncing retirement and the Florida sunshine, he steels off in the dead of night and heads back home to the Old Bailey where he will remain in harness for the six new episodes.

Rumpole, it will be remembered from the last series, did not go gently into retirement or into the Miami sunshine.

But he couldn't get out of complying with the wishes of his wife Hilda, "She Who Must Be Obeyed" (Peggy Thorpe-Bates). But his spirits perk up considerably once he's back.

Lunch Box Meals

In many homes, someone carries a lunch at least every other day. It takes planning and work to pack a good lunch, but it's well worth the time it takes.

Tips for Lunch Packers

Use lunch boxes or buckets when practical—as these make possible more variety than sack lunches.

Arrange a special place in your kitchen to keep lunch packing supplies such as cutting board, foil, plastic wrap, waxed paper, sandwich bags and plastic or glass containers.

Cut sandwiches in half for easy eating.

Wrap lettuce and tomato slices for sandwich in foil or plastic.

Put mayonnaise or mustard in small piece of foil.

Use small glass jars or waxed containers with tops for desserts.

Be sure to include a napkin or two.

Cut unpeeled fruit into wedges and wrap in plastic wrapping material.

Spread bread with softened butter; prevents mold filling from soaking into bread.

Add extra crunch in separate packages—celery, carrot strips, radishes, or green pepper.

How to Freeze

Sandwiches and Fillings
Most kinds of sandwiches, when properly packaged, freeze satisfactorily. Sandwich fillings may also be frozen in small containers for later use. Fillings take less space in the freezer than the sandwiches, though the frozen sandwich saves last-minute preparation for lunch boxes and picnics. Use your own favorite recipes with some changes to adapt them to freezing.

To Prepare and Freeze Sandwiches
These fillings freeze well: Cheddar cheese or cream cheese, sliced or ground meat and poultry, fish, cooked egg yolk, peanut butter and other nut pastes and olives and pickles.

These fillings do not freeze well: Raw vegetables that lose their appetizing crispness and flavor (lettuce, carrots, tomatoes, etc.) when frozen. The whites of hard-cooked eggs become tough in freezer storage. Fruit jellies and mayonnaise and salad dressing (except when mixed with another food, like peanut butter) are likely to soak into the bread and make the sandwiches soggy.

Prepare filling and assemble all needed ingredients and equipment.

Use day-old bread.

Spread inside of each piece of bread from edge to edge with softened butter or margarine. This helps to keep bread from absorbing moisture from filling.

Fill sandwiches. Wrap as they will be used (one or two a package) in moisture-vapor proof material. Seal and label with kind of filling and date. Freeze immediately. Place in box to prevent crushing.

Freeze fillings instead of sandwiches if you prefer. Prepare fillings from favorite recipe with changes to adapt for freezing. Spoon into small jars or moisture-vapor containers, leaving head space. Freeze.

To Thaw Sandwiches

Regular sandwiches: Thaw in original sealed wrappings. A package of two sandwiches will thaw at room temperature from 3 to 3½ hours; therefore, frozen sandwiches packed in a school lunch will be thawed by lunch time.

Fillings: Thaw overnight in refrigerator. Use as you would fresh fillings. Use immediately after thawing.

Storage time: Sandwiches, 3 to 4 weeks; fillings, 3 to 6 months.

PEANUT BUTTER SANDWICH FILLINGS

(Each recipe makes about 1 cup filling)

Pineapple: ½ cup peanut butter, ½ cup drained crushed pineapple. Mix lightly.

Jelly: ½ cup peanut butter, ½ cup jelly (any flavor). Mix lightly.

Carrot and Raisin: ¼ cup peanut butter, ½ cup shredded carrots, 2 tablespoons chopped raisins, 2 tablespoons thick salad dressing. Mix lightly.

Vegetable: ½ cup peanut butter, ½ cup chopped celery stalks with leaves, 1/3 cup grated carrots, 2 tablespoons French dressing, 1/8 teaspoon salt. Blend well.

Meet your United Way officers

EDITORS NOTE: This is part of a series of articles about the officers and directors of the United Way of Hancock County.

A goal of $45,000 has been set for the 1984 campaign in Hancock County. Hilda Bourg is chairman and Bob Hubbard chairman-elect of the campaign now underway.

Wayne Ducomb Jr., 31, a native of the Kiln area, has served as a Hancock County United Way Board of Directors member since 1978 and was fundraising campaign chairman that year.

Hancock United Way volunteers in 1978 raised more than $30,000 which was the campaign goal for that fundraising effort.

Ducomb is president of the Hancock Mental Health Advisory Committee for the Gulf Coast Mental Health Center and a member of Sigma Delta Chi Society of Professional Journalists and the Pan Am Management Club.

He is employed by Pan Am World Services, Inc. as public affairs specialist for NASA's National Space Technology Laboratories visitor information program.

Ducomb attended Bay St. Louis

parochial schools and earned a bachelor of science degree in journalism with emphasis in public relations from the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg.

He has previously worked as a news journalist, photographer, advertising executive, graphic artist and public relations consultant.

In the U.S. Army he served as battalion information specialist for an artillery unit at Fort Bragg, N.C. and assistant editor for a post publication.

Ducomb is a past president and vice president of the Hancock Chamber of Commerce and held various officer positions in local civic groups.

He has earned several awards for his work as a writer and photographer, has been named Outstanding Young Man in America and has been recognized in Who's Who in the South and Southeast. He has received several civic service commendations.

Ducomb and his wife, the former Elizabeth Favre of Kiln, live on the Jourdan River near Hwy. 603.

DRUM MAJORS for the University of Southern Mississippi's Pride of Mississippi marching band, Gary Adam, right, of Bay St. Louis and Charles Thomas of Hattiesburg, prepare the band for a performance during President Reagan's recent campaign stop in Gulfport. Kelly Love, center, is director of the Pride.

Federal grants available for fire fighting

The Mississippi Forestry Commission expects to have approximately $50,000 in Federal funds available for FY 85 for small matching grants to rural communities to assist them in obtaining needed firefighting equipment, according to an announcement this week by State Forester Robert S. Moss.

The grants will be issued under the Rural Community Fire Protection Program (RCFP) as authorized under PL 95-113. This will be the tenth year Mississippi has received funds for such grants which are limited to a maximum of $2,000 per community.

"Communities or fire departments interested in securing one of the RCFP grants would be well-advised to take prompt action in this regard," says Curt Fulgham, fire control forester for the commission.

Rural communities of under 10,000 population are eligible for the funds. In the event the expected Federal funds are not received by the Forestry Commission, all applicants will be notified as soon as possible.

Application forms may be secured from Curt Fulgham, fire control forester, 908 Robert E. Lee Building, Jackson, MS 39201, or from Commission District Offices at Tupelo, Philadelphia, Bay Springs, Wiggins, Brookhaven, Rolling Fork and Elliott.

Completed applications must be returned to Fulgham by 5 p.m., Nov. 30, 1984.
